

Title: "Plans"

The Silver Spring Transit Center is four years and thirty million dollars over budget,	"Construction of Silver Spring Transit Center delayed but plodding ahead," Jason Tomassini, Gazette, 10/21/2009  "Completion of the $91-million transit center, located at Colesville Road and Wayne Avenue, was initially expected for the end of 2010."   "Silver Spring Transit Center opening could slip into 2015," Dick Uliano, WTOP, 4/22/2014  Cost estimates for the facility have grown from $26 million to $120 million
and our county leaders have no plan to get it open.
Now they say, "Well, maybe next year."	"Silver Spring Transit Center opening could slip into 2015," Dick Uliano, WTOP, 4/22/2014  The facility's completion, already way behind schedule, could slip into early next year.
I'm Doug Duncan. I'll get this transit center open for you.	Leadership in Action, Doug Duncan for Montgomery County Executive:  Years of delays and millions of dollars over budget, the Silver Spring Transit Center is an eyesore for the Silver Spring community and the County. Together, we worked to revitalize and reverse the blight that had plagued Silver Spring for decades. When elected, we will work together again to fix and safely open the center."
And I've laid out real plans to prepare our county for the future.
Gigabit internet speeds to attract new businesses.   GFX: Gigabit Internet Speeds	Duncan Campaign, Gigabit Montgomery  During my previous tenure in office, through leadership, determination, and working together, Montgomery County always looked to the future and become leaders of tomorrow – whether it was creating the business incubator system or utilizing online services to streamline government. And I want to continue that effort by bringing 100x faster Internet speeds.
Get our kids out of trailers and into real schools.   GFX: Improve schools	Duncan Campaign, Education  Talking to parents all around the County there is a growing level of frustration that their kids are learning in more crowded classrooms, because there is not enough space in schools to accommodate all the students.  ...  We need a County Executive who unites our delegation, the

	largest in the State, to ensure that we are getting the money needed to improve our schools and narrow the achievement gap. I have done it before and I will do it again.
And we'll do for Wheaton what we for downtown Silver Spring. GFX: Revitalize Wheaton	Leadership in Action, Doug Duncan for Montgomery County Executive: When I first took office, downtown Silver Spring was a striking symbol of the eventual effects of urban neglect and decline. Today, through leadership, hard work and listening to the input of its residents, it is a national model for urban renewal and redevelopment. Looking at the changing landscape of Montgomery County, I believe Montgomery County must focus its efforts on revitalizing downtown Wheaton and bring a flourishing downtown to Clarksburg.”
With leadership, we can get Montgomery County working again.
